A New Level of Sight Words-Based Texts for Teens

What Is TERL All About?

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. The first three libraries are written at the emergent and beginning reader levels. SOAR, the Teen Early Fluency Libraries™, is the newest addition to TERL. It introduces readers to longer fiction and bridges the gap between emergent reading and early fluency.

The books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48- to 64-page books, these fiction and nonfiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today's teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Designed Specifically For:

- Middle School and High School Students Struggling to Read

White Lightning Books®

Tween Fiction Chapter Books

RL: 1.5 to 2.5 | Grades: 6 to 8 | LEXILE: 160L TO 250L

White Lightning Books addresses a wide variety of themes and interests in a narrow range of reading levels, no higher than a 2.5. Students who struggle to read will often not recover from low reading achievement in elementary school if their particular interests are not addressed. Encouragement and finding the theme to “hook” them is key. These are not YA or elementary books—a fact younger teens will appreciate.

Each book is approximately 100 pages with covers that will appeal to young teen readers. The titles in the White Lightning series are designed in a similar style. Students will know what to expect when they pick up a book: a fast-paced story, mature and age-appropriate topics, short chapters, and achievable reading success.

American Government

Nonfiction Hi-Lo Handbooks

RL: 3.5 | Grades: 6 to 12 | LEXILE: 320L TO 350L

Five unique handbooks comprise the new American Government series. With the confusing political discourse in today's world, it's no wonder kids tune out. How can we tune them back in? The stale descriptions in standard American government textbooks do nothing to motivate learning. The readability is too high. And the language too dry. How can we make it personal? Accessible? Interesting? Even humorous?

Award-Winning Realistic Teen Fiction

RL: 1.6 to 3.5 | Grades: YA | LEXILE: 200L TO 420L

From the Great Plains to the borderlands to the Mississippi Delta, rural America is struggling. The population is shrinking. And the economy is shifting away from agriculture. Without a safety net, rural families struggle with depression, drug abuse, alcoholism, and other problems. Gravel Road Rural addresses the contemporary issues affecting rural America in an unflinching way.

Sticks and Stones RURAL

Rape, peer pressure, bullying, intimidation, shame

After the rape, sixteen-year-old Peyton feels dirty. Lost. She could have fought harder. Screamed. Been more aggressive. Gotten him to stop. She knows Brad will get away with it. He's gotten away with it before. The football team protects him. The school does too. It seems like everyone in town is on his side. Girls start to call her a skank. But Peyton is determined to get justice. Only she doesn't know how. The dominoes begin to fall when the truth comes out. First to her best friend. Then to a pastor. Who leads her to a soft-spoken police detective ...

Too young to be alone. Not knowing why, Logan is drawn to her. He insists on driving the young teen to her grandmother's home in Oklahoma. What begins as a road trip ends with life-altering realizations. About family. Obligations. Forgiveness.

Dark Man

Low-Level Graphic Novels

RL: 1.0 to 3.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, YA | LEXILE: 80L TO 670L

Themes: Good versus evil

The first twelve titles in the Dark Man series are 36-page books designed for young adult struggling readers and nonreaders who probably have never successfully managed to read a book. The second six titles are 48-page books with a slight degree of progression over the first twelve and offering a more challenging read.

My New Normal

About the Author
 Sara Michelle

As a high school student, I love this time in my life and plan to live it up while doing what I used to believe was impossible, writing and publishing books. One day I'd love to get my PhD in psychology—and in a parallel universe, I'd love to be an actor. My favorite food is ice cream; I could honestly live off of it 24/7. My friends mean the world to me, and I'd be absolutely nowhere without my large, crazy family. I can't wait to see what life has to offer, and I plan on enjoying every minute of it!

Themes: Friendship, cliques, self-esteem, growing up

Middle school is the perfect storm of BFFs, frenemies, and mean girls. If you haven't been frozen out, dumped, or betrayed, then you are lucky. Handing drama is never fun, especially when you're alone. But some bonds of friendship are forever. The Summit Middle School series tackles the challenging years before high school.

The newly forged friendship between Carson Roberts, Emma Swanson, and Mai Pham seems unbreakable. The girls have found a kindred spirit in each other. Together, they turn the tables on the most beautiful bully in Texusun City, Jessa McCain. There are no power struggles between these three besties.

Book 1: The Most Beautiful Bully

Handling drama by yourself is never fun. New seventh grade student Carson Roberts learns the hard way not to cross the school bully, beautiful Jessa McCain. And it's only her first day! She's also made two friends in quiet Emma Swanson and shy Mai Pham. But if there's one thing Carson learns, it's that baggage follows you.

Book 2: Silentious

Mai Pham cannot wait to return to Summit after the holiday break. She remembers how she used to dread it. School was a lonely place. But now Mai has two besties: Carson and Emma. Ever since Carson showed up, life has been different. Mai's new school ties don't please her dad. Friendships are a distraction. Can Mai prove him wrong?

Book 3: The Alternative

Popular Summit Middle School student Brent Bonham and his father never agree. Brent's dad runs an at-risk youth program, never thinking his own son would need help. But one day Brent does something illegal. And he's sent to the alternative campus, where beautiful bully Jessa McCain is also in attendance.

Book 4: All About My Selfie

Emma Swanson hasn't won any popularity contests at Summit Middle School. Not that she hasn't tried. The rejection hurts. But her friendships with Mai and Carson give her confidence. Grovehill Giants

Teen Fiction Flip Books
by Stephanie Perry Moore

RL: 3.5 | Grades: YA | LEXILE: 640L TO 680L
Themes: Jealousy, work ethic, integrity, self-esteem

The Lockwood Lions' crosstown rivals, the Grovehill Giants, seem to have it all. Or do they? When the cheer squad and the ballers get together, it always gets intense. But there are two sides to every story—whose side are you on? Each novel in the flip is approximately 30,000 words—170 pages. The ladies of Savvy Girl—Skylar, Ariel, Vanessa, Victoria, and Yaris—have their ups and downs. But they won't let their drama interfere with the state title. The ballers of Fresh Guy—Ford, Ryder, Emerson, Stone, and Hagen—are tough athletes and grand showboaters. But can they take it to the Dome?

Campus Confessions®

Hi-Lo College Fiction for Girls

RL: 3.5 | Grades: YA | LEXILE: 530L TO 570L

Themes: College life, self-reliance

Ronette Bradley hasn't exactly been an ideal student. Certainly she's no overachiever. But she's caught a lucky break. And she's determined not to screw up. Part romance—part confessional—part college adventures—each novel is approximately 28,000 words—160 pages.

Book 1: XO Ronette

Ronette Bradley. Good on standardized tests, a mess on her report cards. With high school over, she's stuck cleaning hotel rooms. Her high school sweetheart, Jayson Jones, is off to renowned Houseman University, a historically black college in the Dee Cee—two sisters for every brother. Ronette's ended up at CCC, the dismal Chicagoland Community College. Until one fateful telephone call changes everything ...

PB: 9781622507016 $9.95

Lexile: 530L

Book 3: Choices

Ronette wants to fly solo for a while. But Cornell London—a senior—is interested. Ronette's not sure she's ready for another relationship. Besides, Jayson still wants her back. But for now he's firmly in the "friend" column. And the poem Chyna rapped without permission? For better or worse, that performance puts them on the verge of a hip-hop deal. No lie. Now the Houseman Gammars are knocking ... so many choices, so little time.

PB: 9781622507030 $9.95

Lexile: 550L

Book 2: Frenemies

Ronette is in! She's a freshman at Houseman University. And she's psyched, especially because her fave poet in the world is a Houseman professor. Great, right? Oh-so-wrong. Her roommate, Chyna, turns out to be a—well, it's unprintable. Chyna thinks she's all that because she's the daughter of America's most famous talk show hostess. Even worse, Ronette finds Jayson ... let's just say college life is tough.

PB: 9781622507023 $9.95

Lexile: 570L

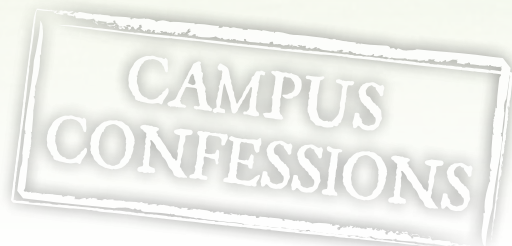

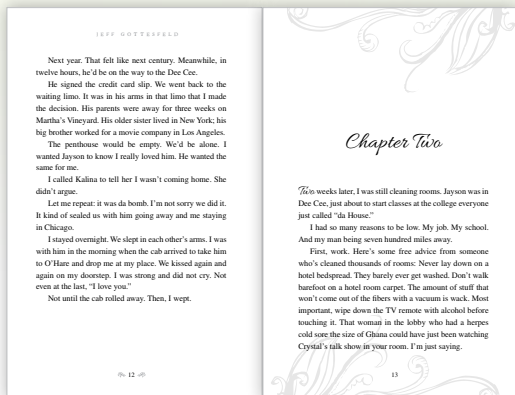

Book 4: Crush

The proverb, "Time heals all wounds," is true to some extent. But to Ronette, Jayson still hurts. Maybe she doesn't want time to heal this wound. It feels better fresh. Jayson thought she'd change her mind over break. But Ronette is firm. She's alone, finally. Except she's not. "Hey, Houseman girl." This brother has the warmest, friendliest face Ronette has ever seen. The rest, as they say, is history.

RL: 4.0 | Grades: YA | LEXILE: 630L TO 720L

Themes: Overcoming difficulty, self reliance

Las Vegas is the city of lady luck. And teen heiress Alana Skye is living the life, thanks to her billionaire dad. But money comes with strings attached. Failure is not an option. Kaylee Ryan was not born with a silver spoon in her mouth. But she has nerve and imagination. Just what this new Vegas transplant needs to make it big. Each book is approximately 320 pages.

WOW REVIEW! 😍

“Rapid pacing, suspense, and hints of romance propel both stories, bound back-to-back so readers finish one before flipping the book to start the other. Vegas’ grit and glamour figure prominently in these stories, which will draw struggling readers as well as anyone looking for an airy, beachready confection.”

Differentiated Classics

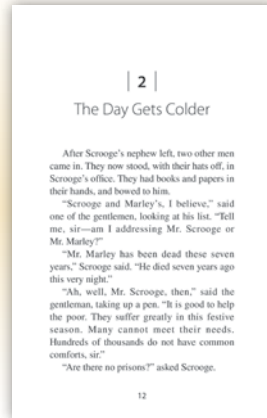

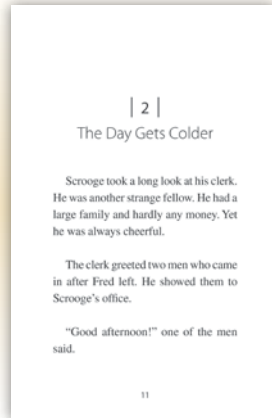

Adapted Classics at Two Low Levels

RL: 1.0 to 5.2 | Grades: 3 to 12, YA | LEXILE: 140L TO 250L

We've taken our Timeless Classics and Shakespeare and made them even more accessible. Words and phrases that may have stumped emergent readers have been eliminated. We recognize that students in the same classroom may not have equivalent reading skills, which is why the two levels appear virtually identical—on the outside. Inside it's a whole different look, with a larger font and extra white space, making these stories visually appealing with the aim to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and confidence. Classic fiction is 80 pages and classic Shakespeare is 110 pages.

Reading Comprehension Nonfiction 1 & 2

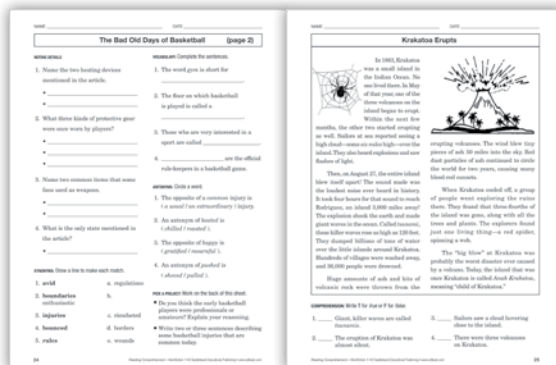

100 Reproducible Activities in Each Book

RL: 3.0 to 4.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, ELL

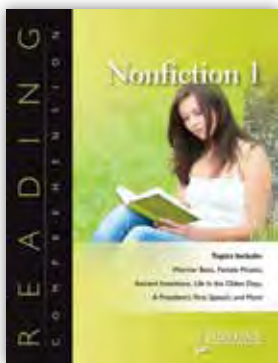

Students suffer from a knowledge deficit. Students only exposed to fiction will lack the necessary background and vocabulary to understand history and science texts. But reading nonfiction can be difficult. Nonfiction does not follow the predictable structure of fiction stories and often contains tricky vocabulary and new concepts. Most reading after high school is nonfiction reading. Students will develop skills and strategies for navigating nonfiction and understanding its organization and structure with manageable two-page activities.

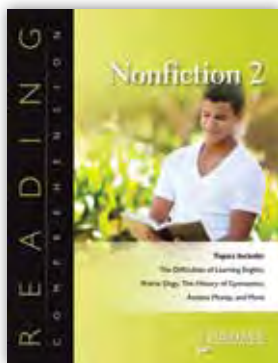

Each book includes a CD, which contains a complete electronic version of the reproducible as an "Unlocked PDF." Unlocked PDFs allow users to copy/paste text and certain images for posting, emailing, projecting on a whiteboard, and more.

Read, Reflect, Respond

Comprehension Using Informational Text

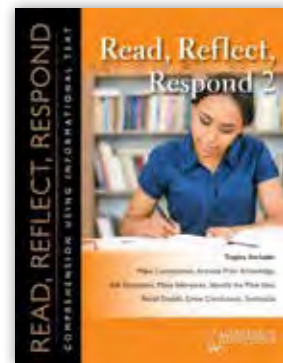

RL: 3.5 to 4.0 | Grades: 5 to 12

The CCSS emphasizes nonfiction as an essential component to any successful reading program. The reading selections in Read, Reflect, Respond introduce students to the framework of content-rich nonfiction. Students connect to the text, exploring their own experiences, opinions, and prior knowledge. They will quickly become familiar with the various kinds of responses required to the comprehension questions, including thinking critically about the material. This familiarity will alert them to important clues in the text reading material. They will learn to focus on the main idea, key vocabulary, and important facts.

Each reproducible book (RB) contains 54 two-page content-rich nonfiction articles and comprehension questions, plus two "super lessons." Includes answer keys.

Common Core Skills & Strategies for Reading

Aligned to the Specific CCSS Strands

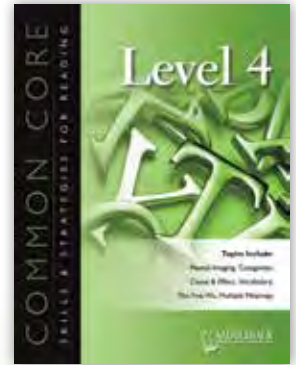

RL: 3.0 to 8.0 | Grades: 3 to 12, ELL

The Common Core State Standards (CCSS) provide a consistent, clear understanding of what students are expected to learn. Aligning each lesson in these six Common Core titles to the CCSS ensures that students are being taught and assessed on what they are expected to learn and know. The alignment helps educators think critically about their curriculum, instruction, and assessments as they work to ensure that their students meet the rigorous new standards.

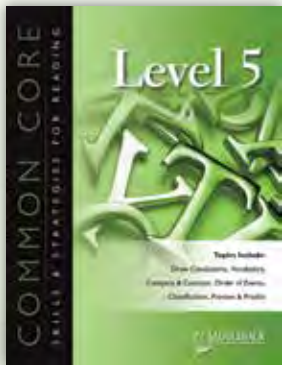

Beginning with foundational skills, the activities teach students what they need to learn. The alignments offer a progressive development of reading comprehension skills so that students advancing through the levels are able to gain more from whatever they read. Each title includes a table of contents, a CCSS alignment chart, 130 reproducible lessons individually aligned to the CCSS (each lesson contains a discrete alignment at the bottom of the page), a scope and sequence chart, and an answer key.

Take the anxiety out of learning with Reproducible Books (RB) that explore good study skills. Study skills are approaches applied to learning and are critical to success in school and life. Most importantly, these skills can be acquired! Being a good student does not simply mean showing up to class, taking notes, reading the assignments, and studying for exams. Study skills are much more complex and include: Note Taking, Organization, Reading Comprehension, Test Taking, Time Management, Understanding Learning Styles.

Worktexts

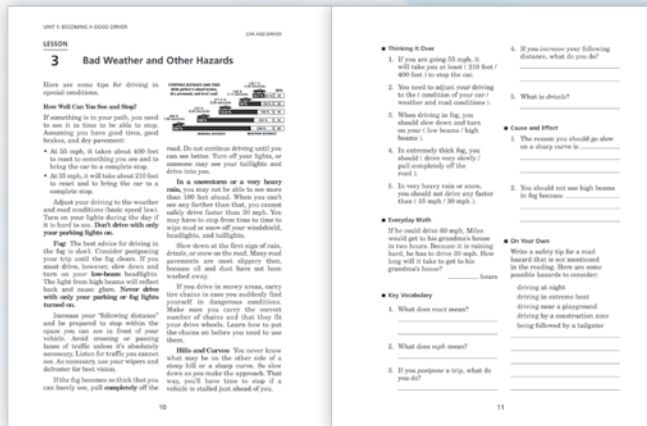

The 10 activity-based worktexts (8.25" x 10.75") in this series will provide students a thorough introduction to the “must have” multi-dimensional competencies, concepts, and vocabulary they need to achieve independence in the twenty-first century world. Unlike the companion Handbooks, each student worktext (SW) features 16 two-page lessons. The Teacher’s Resource Guide (TRG) for the worktexts, available only on CD-ROM, includes 60 reproducible exercises, six per worktext, to support and extend primary instruction and includes answer keys for both the exercises and worktexts (delivered on CD-ROM).

- Two-page lessons—16 in each worktext—focused on a particular subtopic
- Word lists for both preview and review of essential vocabulary.
- Preview and Review exercises introduce and wrap up each unit
- A topic-related “Everyday Math” application in every lesson

Reproducible Activities and IWB Lessons

Grades: 6 to 12

MathSkills reinforces four key areas: pre-algebra, geometry, algebra, and algebra 2. Four reproducible books correspond to each whiteboard unit—100 lessons per unit. A complete interactive experience! Each activity can be used as lesson previews, reviews, end-of-unit quizzes, or homework. Interactive whiteboards are phenomenal tools.

IWB lesson activities are powered by SMART Notebook™ collaborative learning software. Using an interactive whiteboard can be a very effective instructional strategy for students who benefit from repetition, including struggling learners. Reproducible lessons can aid students as they follow the whiteboard instruction.

Primary Source: An Interview with Michelle Obama, 2009

Read the quotation. Then choose the best answer for each item.

Kate Couric: Your husband's experience has been especially emotional. Some moments that still come back to you are the moments that you were together under the hot lights he had to face. What do you tell people who are worried about that?

Michelle Obama: I tell people that I was not there because I did not want to be there. And a lot of times it's years in Washington, or whether you're made a lot of money creating a very large corporation... that's what it is to be the woman of leadership. It's about the people that make over an addition...

Kate Couric: Like what?

Michelle Obama: Community organizing. Now, when was the last time we had a president of the United States who spent years working... with people who were not a part of the government? Not the military, not the police, not the government? Somebody who has worked as a... civil rights attorney for years.

Barack could have been a partner at a major firm. He could have worked on Wall Street. He probably could have been the CEO of a company that he made choices to work on issues of justice, things like housing discrimination and employment discrimination... Barack has spent eight years, in addition to his work as a U.S. senator, in the state legislature.

1. What job did Barack Obama do before he was president?

2. What was Barack Obama's mother from?

3. What was Barack Obama's mother from?

4. What was Barack Obama's mother from?

RL: 3.5 | Grades: 6 to 12 | LEXILE: 320L TO 350L

Five unique handbooks comprise the new American Government series. With the confusing political discourse in today's world, it's no wonder kids tune out. How can we tune them back in? The stale descriptions in standard American government textbooks do nothing to motivate learning. The readability is too high. And the language too dry. How can we make it personal? Accessible? Interesting? Even humorous?

The 21st Century Coach®

21st Century Skills in 21-Minute Lessons

RL: 3.0 to 4.0 | Grades: 6 to 12

The 21st Century Coach® attempts to bridge the gap between coursework and real work by focusing on real-world skills and applications. In order to thrive in the 21st century digital economy, students will need certain proficiencies within the context of rigorous academic standards. Each resource book focuses on one of the three categories listed in the Partnership for 21st Century Skills: Learning and Innovation Skills; Information, Media, and Technology Skills; Life and Career Skills. The reproducible activities and lessons in this three-book series will prepare students for success in the 21st century by giving them the skills and knowledge they will need as citizens, workers, and leaders after high school.

Features

- Three 104-page Teacher Resource Books each containing 36 lessons, which allows for pacing based on 36 weeks of instruction.

- Teach to your student demographics: Choose from three pacing “tracks.” Each track leads with one book based on the students’ needs, and integrates lessons from the other two books, maintaining a once-per-week instruction plan with options for more if needed.
- Teach in 21-minute increments: Each lesson is composed of teaching sections that can be done in “21 minutes or less.” Following an Introduce/Teach/Reflect approach, teachers may instruct the lesson concept in a minimum, 21-minute period.
- Each lesson is two pages—one page of teacher instruction followed by one reproducible Student Activity Sheet.
- To extend class time, teachers may choose from three additional activities, each of which also can be completed within 21 minutes.
- Sixteen skill-specific graphic organizers are at the end of each resource book.
