A New Level of Accessible Text for Teens

“One-fifth of high school graduates can’t read their diplomas.”

—US Department of Justice

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. Written at the emergent and beginning reader levels, the books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48- to 64-page books, these fiction and nonfiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today’s teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Dark Man

Low-Level Graphic Novels

RL: 1.0 to 3.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, YA | Lexile: 380L to 670L

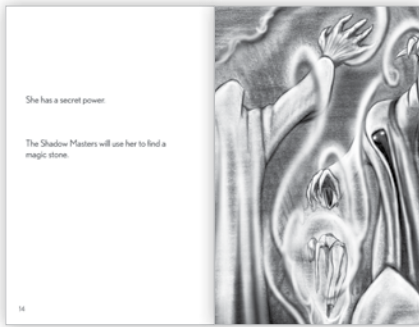

The first six titles in the Dark Man series are 36-page books designed for young adult struggling readers and nonreaders who probably have never successfully managed to read a book. The second six titles are 48-page books with a slight degree of progression over the first six and offering a more challenging read. The final set of 48-page titles (Yellow Series) continue the Dark Man's quest to destroy the evil Shadow Masters.

The story text is short and simple but not patronizing. Stories are gritty, full of tension and mystery. The language is terse. The Dark Man is a serious comic hero with his own mythology. Each book is a self-contained story, but each story is a part of a greater whole.

The twelve books can be read in any order. The first six stories (orange) range from 220 to 420 words. The Green and Yellow Series are 1000 words each.

My New Normal™

Hi-Lo Dystopian Teen Romance

RL: 3.0 | Grades: YA | Lexile: 450L to 760L

Texas teen Sara Michelle pens her debut series. Cecilia has always been secure in her world. A high school cheerleader, she is pretty and popular. And she dates Ryan, one of the most handsome boys in her school. She leads a charmed and pampered life. When the world they know is destroyed, will their struggle to survive destroy their love? Paperback books are just short of 100 pages.

The Aftermath: Book 1

From what we've calculated, it's been seven days since The End. We don't really have a more suitable name for it. There was absolutely no warning. It was three days after Christmas. We were alone and scared. Nobody expected the theories and stories to actually come true. After 2012 passed with no strange activity, the whole idea of the apocalypse seemed like rubbish. But we were proven terribly wrong. Nostradamus got it right after all.

Lexile: 500L

Paperback; SE7700-W5 $8.95

The Inside: Book 2

This situation was way out of my control. I was willing to give up anything to go back to the way things were before ... I tried my best to comfort and reassure Cecilia that somehow everything would be okay. But I really couldn't be convincing when I could barely convince myself. We were walking into an unknown world. A world without leadership. No government. No medicine. No transportation. No food except what we could grow ... or kill. It was going to be mass chaos.

Lexile: 550L

Paperback; SE7719-W5 $8.95

The Others: Book 3

When we opened the door, the screaming continued. Ryan grabbed the lamp. I was honestly terrified. I knew Ryan was too because when I grabbed his hand, it was shaking. If you think rationally, it was ridiculous for teenagers to deal with this kind of threat. We'd already witnessed the world falling to pieces. We'd lost everyone and everything we loved. We'd both been dreadfully ill. Who knew what was going to hit us next?

About the Author

Sara Michelle

As a high school student, I love this time in my life and plan to live it up while doing what I used to believe was impossible, writing and publishing books. One day I'd love to get my PhD in psychology—and in a parallel universe, I'd love to be an actor. My favorite food is ice cream; I could honestly live off of it 24/7. My friends mean the world to me, and I'd be absolutely nowhere without my large, crazy family. I can't wait to see what life has to offer, and I plan on enjoying every minute of it!

Reviews

VOYA, "Young readers who may not be able to tackle the vocabulary and complexities of Suzanne Collins's The Hunger Games may find this series an adequate substitute."

The Outside: Book 4

In the end, we agreed that we would be heading north toward LoDo: the Lower Downtown Historic District. Cecilia and I had arrived at the shelter from the south, so I had no idea what to expect in LoDo. But by traveling this way, we would pass by some of the richer suburbs, like Cherry Hills Village. The weather had been pretty good, but it was still the middle of winter on the Front Range.

The Beginning: Book 5

It took me a few seconds after seeing Jason to comprehend that it was the Jason standing there. I then realized that Jesska had absolutely no idea who Jason was or the potential danger we were in. Forget potential. We were in danger. Jason had promised that he would be back, and unfortunately, it looked like he kept his promises. Just my luck. If this was war, my chances were slim to none.

Monique Read was the prettiest girl Greg Nick had ever seen. When he came to work at the Side Some clothing store, he couldn't take his eyes off her. He was glad his pal Lew Thomson had encouraged him to apply for the job. What a great girl! The Side Some had only attractive young employees. But Monique was off the charts!

"Hey, Lew," Greg teased, "how come you didn't tell me Miss Universe was working here? Believe me, I would've applied sooner!"

Greg wondered why Lew didn't smile. Usually, Lew had a pretty good sense of humor. "We're talking about Monique! I'd stay away from her, man," Lew said.

Realistic Fiction for Young Adults

Gravel Road® Verse NEW

Award-Winning Low-Level Poetry

RL: 3.0 to 3.5 | Grades: YA | Lexile: 460L to 620L

Just like prose, a novel in verse tells a story. But verse is unique because readers access the text through short “chapters,” or poems. The varying lengths of the chapters are ideal for a struggling reader, giving them breaks to collect their thoughts, to imagine the characters in their mind’s eye, and to set the scene—like a frame in a movie. The structure of poetry makes the books appear less intimidating, with plenty of airy white space. Moreover, the depth and substance conveyed in verse is every bit as deep and real as in a Gravel Road prose novel.

Common Core State Standards ELA states that students must be able to “... analyze the impact of rhymes and other repetitions of sounds (e.g., alliteration) on a specific verse or stanza of a poem or section of a story or drama.”

by Stephanie Perry Moore

RL: 3.5 | Grades: YA | Lexile: 640L to 680L

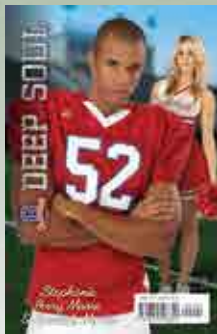

The Lockwood Lions' crosstown rivals, the Grovehill Giants, seem to have it all. Or do they? When the cheer squad and the ballers get together, it always gets intense. But there are two sides to every story—whose side are you on? Each novel in the flip is approximately 30,000 words—170 pages. The ladies of Savvy Girl—Skylar, Ariel, Vanessa, Victoria, and Yaris—have their ups and downs. But they won't let their drama interfere with the state title. The ballers of Fresh Guy—Ford, Ryder, Emerson, Stone, and Hagen—are tough athletes and grand showboaters. But can they take it to the Dome?

Ronette Bradley hasn't exactly been an ideal student. Certainly she's no overachiever. But she's caught a lucky break. And she's determined not to screw up. Part romance—part confessional—part college adventures—each novel is approximately 28,000 words—160 pages.

XO Ronette

Ronette Bradley. Good on standardized tests, a mess on her report cards. With high school over, she's stuck cleaning hotel rooms. Her high school sweetheart, Jayson Jones, is off to renowned Houseman University, a historically black college in the Dee Cee—two sisters for every brother. Ronette's ended up at CCC, the dismal Chicagoland Community College. Until one fateful telephone call changes everything . . .

Frenemies

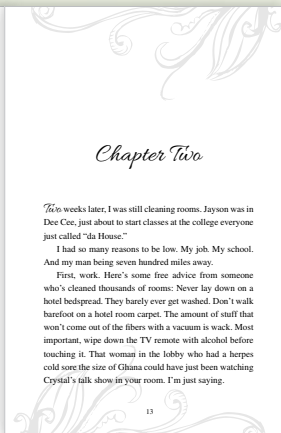

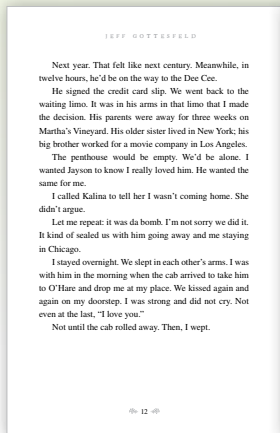

Ronette is in! She's a freshman at Houseman University. And she's psyched, especially because her fave poet in the world is a Houseman professor. Great, right? Oh-so-wrong. Her roommate, Chyna, turns out to be a—well, it's unprintable. Chyna thinks she's all that because she's the daughter of America's most famous talk show hostess. Even worse, Ronette finds Jayson . . . let's just say college life is tough.

Choices

Ronette wants to fly solo for a while. But Cornell London—a senior—is interested. Ronette's not sure she's ready for another relationship. Besides, Jayson still wants her back. But for now he's firmly in the "friend" column. And the poem Chyna rapped without permission? For better or worse, that performance puts them on the verge of a hip-hop deal. No lie. Now the Houseman Gammas are knocking . . . so many choices, so little time.

Crush

The proverb, "Time heals all wounds," is true to some extent. But to Ronette, Jayson still hurts. Maybe she doesn't want time to heal this wound. It feels better fresh. Jayson thought she'd change her mind over break. But Ronette is firm. She's alone, finally. Except she's not. "Hey, Houseman girl." This brother has the warmest, friendliest face Ronette has ever seen. The rest, as they say, is history.

Differentiated Classics

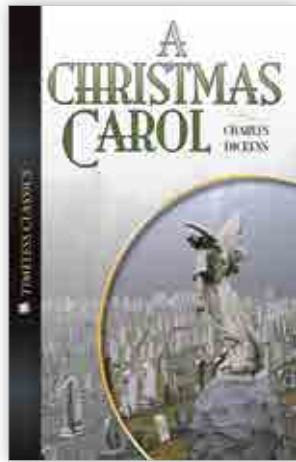

Adapted Classics at Two Low Levels

RL: 1.0 to 2.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, YA | Lexile: 140L to 250L

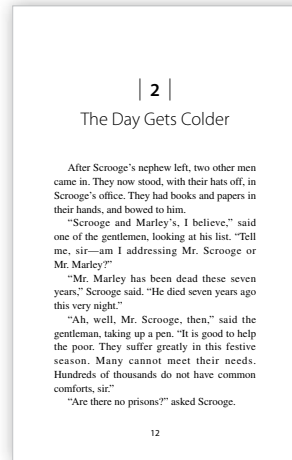

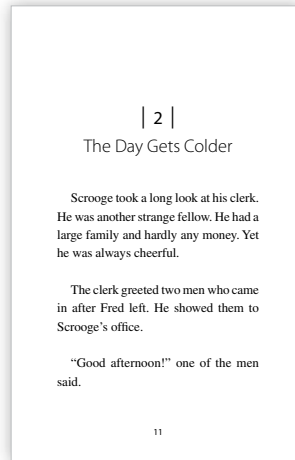

We've taken our Timeless Classics and Shakespeare and made them even more accessible. Words and phrases that may have stumped emergent readers have been eliminated. We recognize that students in the same classroom may not have equivalent reading skills, which is why the two levels appear virtually identical—on the outside. Inside it's a whole different look, with a larger font and extra white space, making these stories visually appealing with the aim to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and confidence. Classic fiction is 80 pages and classic Shakespeare is 110 pages.

Common Core Skills & Strategies for Reading

Aligned to the Specific CCSS Strands

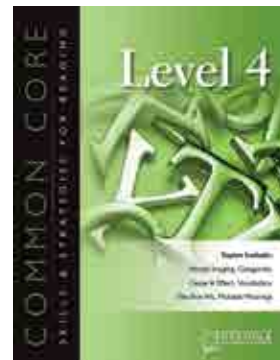

RL: 3.0 to 8.0 | Grades: 3 to 12

The Common Core State Standards (CCSS) provide a consistent, clear understanding of what students are expected to learn. Aligning each lesson in these six Common Core titles to the CCSS ensures that students are being taught and assessed on what they are expected to learn and know. The alignment helps educators think critically about their curriculum, instruction, and assessments as they work to ensure that their students meet the rigorous new standards.

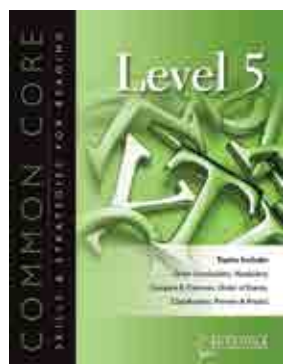

Beginning with foundational skills, the activities teach students what they need to learn. The alignments offer a progressive development of reading comprehension skills so that students advancing through the levels are able to gain more from whatever they read. Each title includes a table of contents, a CCSS alignment chart, 130 reproducible lessons individually aligned to the CCSS (each lesson contains a discrete alignment at the bottom of the page), a scope and sequence chart, and an answer key.

100 Reproducible Activities in Each Book

RL: 3.0 to 4.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, ELL

Students suffer from a knowledge deficit. Students only exposed to fiction will lack the necessary background and vocabulary to understand history and science texts. But reading nonfiction can be difficult. Nonfiction does not follow the predictable structure of fiction stories and often contains tricky vocabulary and new concepts. Most reading after high school is nonfiction reading. Students will develop skills and strategies for navigating nonfiction and understanding its organization and structure with manageable two-page activities.

Common Core Curriculum English

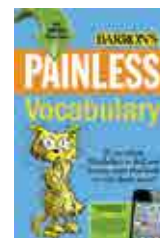

Grades: K to 12

The first books to present specific guidance for teaching the Common Core State Standards (CCSS)—created by teachers, for teachers, the research-based curriculum maps in this book present a comprehensive, coherent sequence of thematic units for teaching the skills outlined in the CCSS for English language arts. Teachers can use the maps to plan their year and craft their own more detailed lesson plans. Each grade is broken down into six units that include focus standards, suggested works, sample activities and assessments, lesson plans, and more. Common Core Skills & Strategies for Vocabulary

Aligned to the Specific CCSS Strands

RL: 3.0 to 8.0 | Grades: 3 to 12

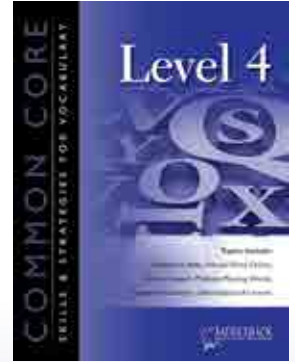

The Common Core State Standards (CCSS) provide a consistent, clear understanding of what students are expected to learn in the area of vocabulary acquisition and use, a key component to literacy. Aligning each lesson in these six Common Core titles to the CCSS English language arts standards ensures that students are being exposed to grade-level content. The alignment helps educators think critically about their curriculum, instruction, and assessments as they work to ensure that their students meet the rigorous new standards.

Beginning with foundational skills, the activities teach students in a balanced and methodical way. The alignments offer a progressive development of vocabulary acquisition and use so that students advancing through the levels are able to gain more from whatever they read.

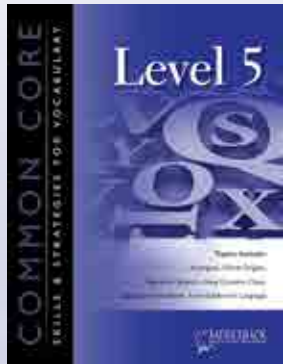

Each title includes a table of contents, a CCSS alignment chart, 130 reproducible lessons individually aligned to the CCSS (each lesson contains a discrete alignment at the bottom of the page), a scope and sequence chart, and an answer key.

100 Reproducible Activities in Each Book

RL: 3.0 to 8.0 | Grades: 3 to Adult, ELL

Visit any classroom and you will encounter students with a variety of goals, and not everyone approaches education with the same goal. For some students, school is a direct path to the real world. But many schools don't teach their students functional literacy or how to deal with the basic issues they will encounter in everyday life: preparing a résumé, applying for a job, opening a bank account, getting out of debt, understanding credit, and more. These functional words are learned in context with manageable one-page activities.

Handbooks

Combining practical content with visual appeal, the 21st Century Lifeskills handbooks read more like a magazine than a book. Highly readable with full-color photographs, a smaller trim size (6" x 9"), and an eye-popping layout, these 120-page student handbooks (SH) are great for teaching life skills to a twenty-first century population without the appearance of a textbook. The 10 handbooks in this series will provide readers a thorough and non-threatening introduction to the multi-dimensional competencies, concepts, and vocabulary they need to achieve independence. Used alone or in conjunction with the activity-based 21st Century Lifeskills worktexts, these handbooks offer students a unique and visual way to achieve real-world literacy.
