A New Level of Phonics-Based Texts for Teens

What Is TERL Phonics All About?

TERL Phonics has been developed specifically for emerging teen readers who are developing their decoding skills. The series is also useful for newcomers with no prior English language skills. A New Level of Sight Words-Based Texts for Teens

What Is TERL All About?

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. The first three libraries are written at the emergent and beginning reader levels. SOAR, the Teen Early Fluency Libraries™, is the newest addition to TERL. It introduces readers to longer fiction and bridges the gap between emergent reading and early fluency.

The books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48- to 64-page books, these fiction and nonfiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today's teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Designed Specifically For:

- Middle School and High School Students Struggling to Read
- Students with Learning Differences and Special Needs
- English Language Learners and Newcomers

Used alone or in conjunction with the activity-based 21st Century Lifeskills worktexts, these handbooks offer students a unique and visual way to achieve real-world literacy.

White Lightning Books® NEW

Tween Fiction Chapter Books

RL: 1.5 to 2.5 | Grades: 6 to 8 | Lexile: 160L to 250L

White Lightning Books addresses a wide variety of themes and interests in a narrow range of reading levels, no higher than a 2.5. Students who struggle to read will often not recover from low reading achievement in elementary school if their particular interests are not addressed. Encouragement and finding the theme to “hook” them is key. These are not YA or elementary books—a fact younger teens will appreciate.

Each book is approximately 100 pages with covers that will appeal to young teen readers. The titles in the White Lightning series are designed in a similar style. Students will know what to expect when they pick up a book: a fast-paced story, mature and age-appropriate topics, short chapters, and achievable reading success.

Dark Man

Low-Level Graphic Novels

RL: 1.0 to 3.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, YA | Lexile: 380L to 670L

Themes: Good versus evil

The first twelve titles in the Dark Man series are 36-page books designed for young adult struggling readers and nonreaders who probably have never successfully managed to read a book. The second twelve titles are 48-page books with a slight degree of progression over the Blue and Orange series.

The story text is short and simple but not patronizing. Stories are gritty, full of tension and mystery. The language is terse. The Dark Man is a serious comic hero with his own mythology. Each book is a self-contained story, but each story is a part of a greater whole.

The books can be read in any order. The Blue and Orange Series range from 220 to 420 words (RL 1.0 to 2.0). The Green and Yellow series are 1000 words each (RL 2.0 to 3.0).

The Right Now! series contains colorful high-impact graphics and cutting-edge design, which adds drama to every page. Differentiated Classics

Adapted Classics at Two Low Levels

RL: 1.0 to 2.0 | Grades: 5 to 12, YA | Lexile: 140L to 250L

We've taken our Timeless Classics and Shakespeare and made them even more accessible. Words and phrases that may have stumped emergent readers have been eliminated. We recognize that students in the same classroom may not have equivalent reading skills, which is why the two levels appear virtually identical—on the outside. Inside it's a whole different look, with a larger font and extra white space, making these stories visually appealing with the aim to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and confidence. Classic fiction is 80 pages and classic Shakespeare is 110 pages.
