

Arts

acrylic

a water-based paint that dries quickly airborne

transported or carried by air

amino acid

a natural compound found in certain foods that helps living things function

Health and Wellness

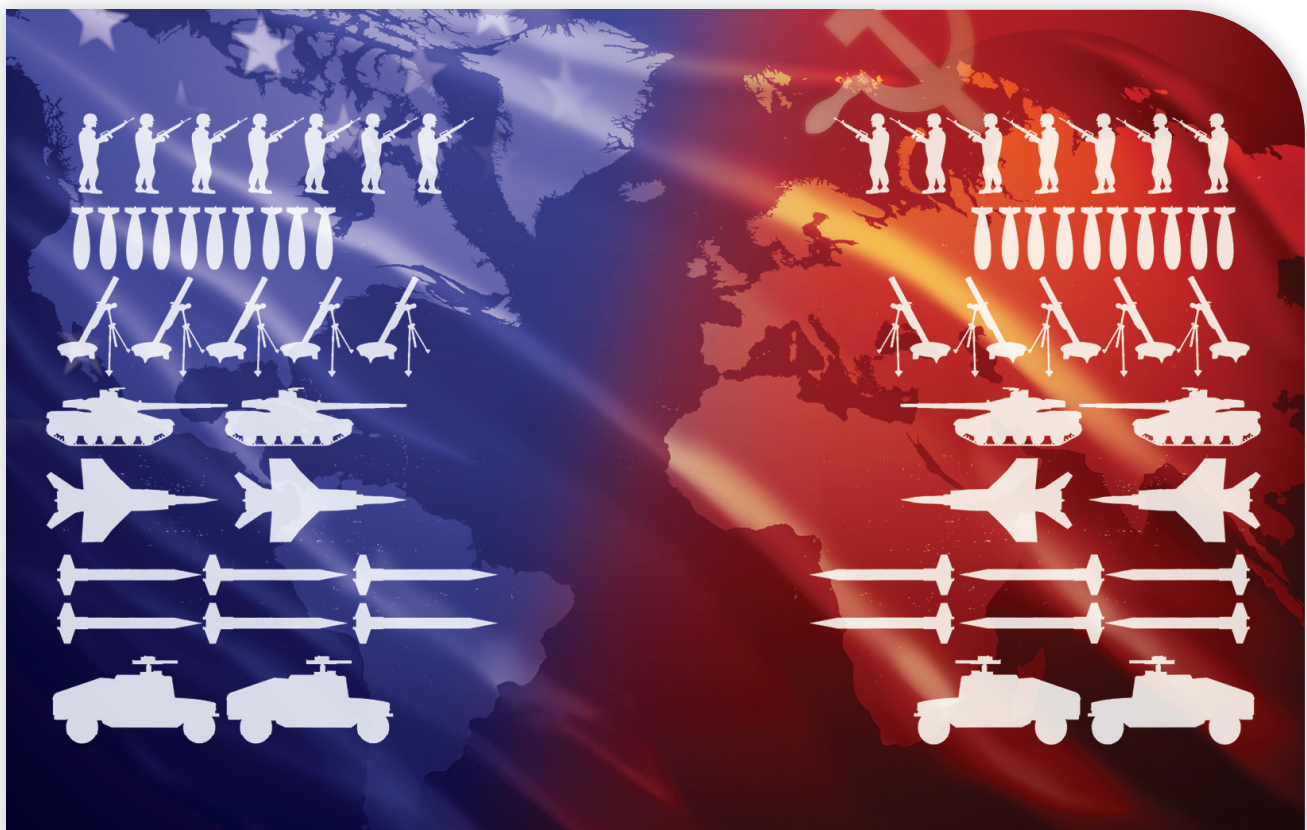

anxiety

a feeling of fear or worry about what might happen

arms race

a competition in which one country tries to build or gather more weapons than its enemy has

ash

a soft, powdery substance that is left behind after something has burned

Science

asteroid

a rocky object that travels around the sun

Science

atmosphere

the gases surrounding a planet

Arts

backstage

the area behind the stage of a theater

beat

the pattern of sounds in a song

