MISSING

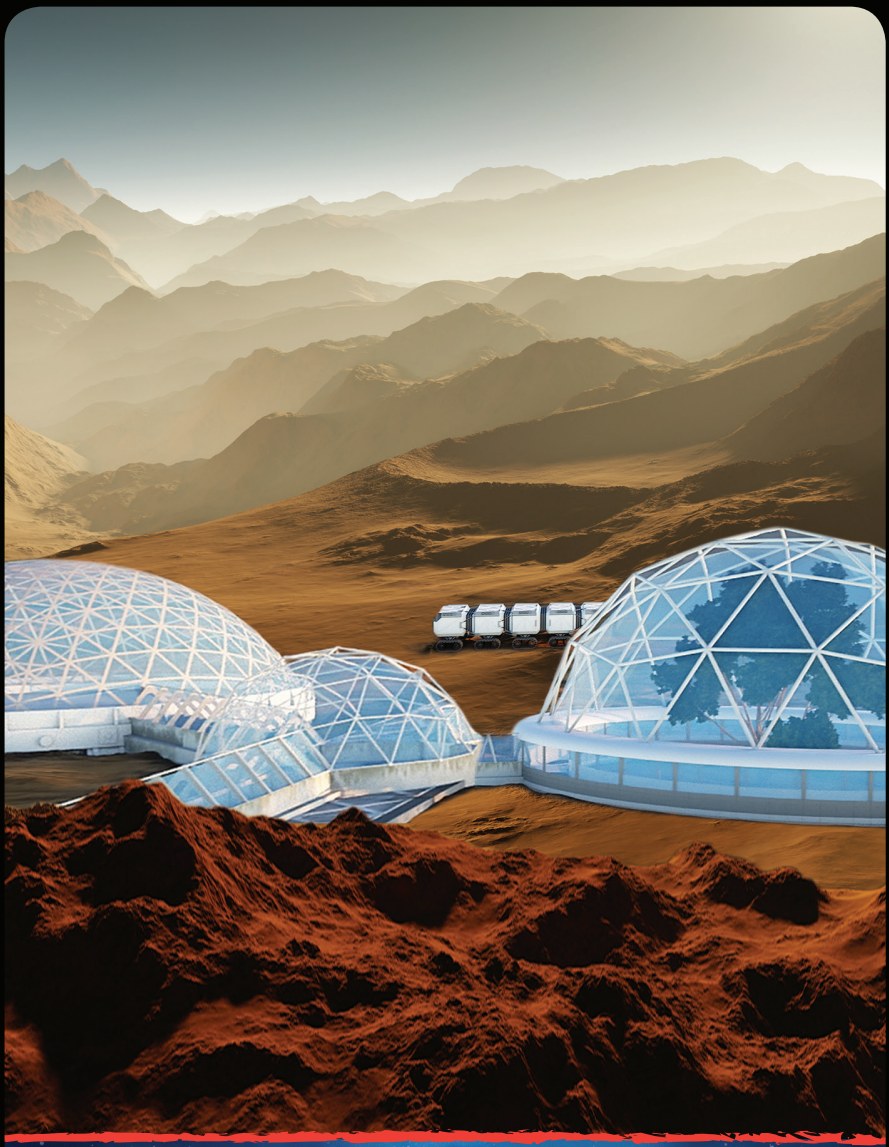

The red orb grew in the porthole.
Mars came into view.
It blew Troy away.
They were here at last.
The trip had taken six months.

Troy landed the spaceship.
His crew climbed out.
They would live here two years.
Now the first crew could go home.

Three large domes rose before them.
All was still.

“No greeting party?” Troy asked.

“Maybe they are inside,” Joyce said. “Baking us a welcome cake.”

Troy laughed. “Maybe.”

DETERRING CRIME

COMBINED PATTERNS

Trucks line up at the border. Agents check them. Nothing looks suspicious. They let the trucks pass.

U.S.-Mexico Border Port of Entry

BORDER
PATROL

Then an alert goes off. It's from artificial intelligence. AI sees a pattern. A truck has been crossing at unusual times.

Agents search the truck. They find something. It's hidden in the gas tank. There are hundreds of pounds of drugs.

Crime can happen anywhere. Can we deter it? Many try.

All agree on one thing. Nobody wants to get caught. Fast detection helps. It lets others know. Crime does not pay.

Tech can help. Big cities use cams. These aren't hidden. They're in plain sight.

Why? This makes a statement. You won't get away with it. Don't even try.
