BLADE

Jade is with her dad.
They gaze at the wall.
On it sits a blade.
Gems dot the hilt.

"Where is it from?" Jade asks.

Her dad smiles.
“The blade is old.
I got it from my dad.
In time, it will pass to you.”

“Tell me the tale,” Jade begs.

"It takes place long ago.
Our ancestor was brave.
She rode out to face dangers."

SHUTTLE TO SPACE

SAMPLE

"T minus 20 and counting.
All systems are go."

"We are seconds away.
Liftoff!"

SAMPLE

It was a clear day.
The year was 1981.
A space shuttle took off.
This was NASA's first.

SAMPLE

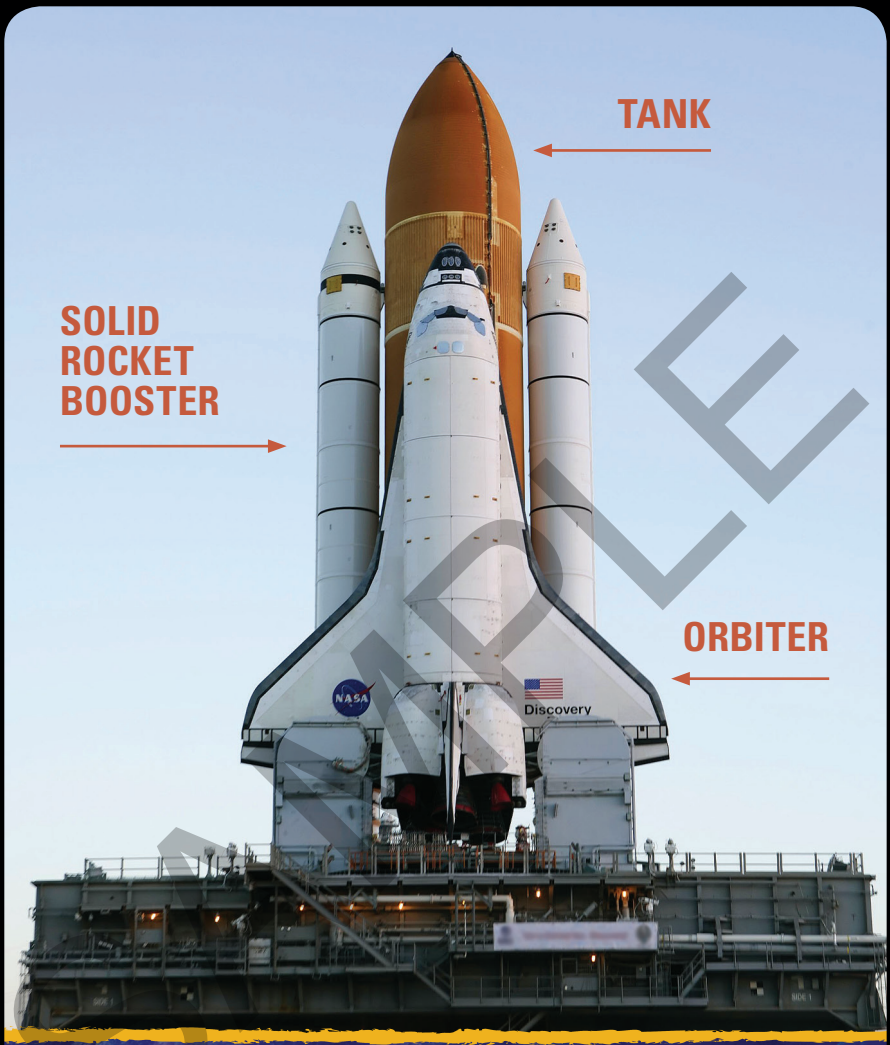

Space travel was not new.
What happened next was.

Rockets came off.
These went down on sails.
Boats were waiting.
The rockets were saved.
This let them be used again.

SAMPLE

Something else was new.
The ship took a turn.
Then it landed like a plane.
It was reusable.

Shuttles are used on land.
They go back and forth.
Many ride them.
Space shuttles did the same thing.
They gave rides to and from space.

DETERRING CRIME

COMBINED PATTERNS

Trucks line up at the border. Agents check them. Nothing looks suspicious. They let the trucks pass.

U.S.-Mexico Border Port of Entry

BORDER
PATROL

Then an alert goes off. It's from artificial intelligence. AI sees a pattern. A truck has been crossing at unusual times.

Agents search the truck. They find something. It's hidden in the gas tank. There are hundreds of pounds of drugs.

Crime can happen anywhere. Can we deter it? Many try.

All agree on one thing. Nobody wants to get caught. Fast detection helps. It lets others know. Crime does not pay.

Tech can help. Big cities use cams. These aren't hidden. They're in plain sight.

Why? This makes a statement. You won't get away with it. Don't even try.
