

ATM

a machine used to take cash out of a bank account; stands for automated teller machine

attendance

being present for class; teachers often check for attendance at the beginning of each class period

budget

a plan for how to use a limited amount of money

bully

to treat someone in a cruel or threatening way

checking account

a bank account people can use to deposit and withdraw money in order to pay bills and buy items

club

a group of students with a common interest or shared goal who meet and take part in activities

coach

an adult who teaches athletes and gets them ready to play against other teams

community center

a building with social events, classes, and information for the people who live in the surrounding area

counselor

a school professional who helps students choose classes and deal with problems

crossing guard

a person who helps students cross streets safely

