American History with Deep Focus on Historical Perspectives

About The Story of America Libraries

The Story of America is a unique collection of history books designed for striving readers in middle school and high school. Nonfiction handbooks are accompanied by historical fiction books with their own nonfiction backstory sections. This collection was created with much thought and consideration for the diverse peoples, cultures, and groups that built our history. The intention of this library is to share some of the stories and voices of those who helped create our nation, from its early days to current times. Seeking to provide opportunities for students to read about and learn from diverse points of view, we have focused intently on exploring a variety of perspectives throughout history.

This library is organized into two time periods. The first covers the very early days in the land that would become the United States through the end of the Civil War, and the second spans Reconstruction through 2022. For each time period, there are six nonfiction handbooks. These highlight key events during a specific span of time while weaving in both well-known and historically underrepresented perspectives. Five historical fiction books accompany each nonfiction handbook. Each fiction book explores a moment in history from the point of view of someone who lived through it. Following the fictional account, a nonfiction section is provided to help readers understand the historical context in which the story takes place.

Designed Specifically For:

- ▶ Striving Readers in Grades 6–12

Each Library Includes:

- ▶ 6 nonfiction handbooks and 30 historical fiction books per time period (also available in one comprehensive set that covers the entire time span)
- ▶ 3 informational card sets (one featuring key vocabulary words, another featuring key events from history, and a third highlighting important groups and people)

For more information visit: www.sdlback.com/TSOA

Key Product Features:

- ▶ Nonfiction handbooks and historical fiction books written at accessible reading levels
- ▶ A deep focus on historical perspectives, providing readers an opportunity to learn about the past through the lens of historically underrepresented viewpoints, including Native American, Black, and female perspectives
- ▶ Graphic elements, including timelines and both historical and present-day maps to show where and when events took place
- ▶ Mature, engaging historical fiction books pull readers into moments from the past
- ▶ Historical fiction books include a full-color nonfiction section to explain what was happening at that time in history

About Tween Emergent Reader Libraries®

Like the award-winning Teen Emergent Reader Libraries®, known as TERL (see pages 76–83), the Tween Emergent Reader Libraries® will motivate struggling readers to pick up a book, start reading, and keep reading. This series features topics and genres particularly of interest to upper elementary and middle school students. The three-box set, with books written at emergent and beginning reader levels, this unique collection contains the books you have been searching for: high-interest fiction and nonfiction selections in sets that include both literary genres and content-specific themes.

Because these books are designed for ages 10 to 14, the storylines presented are not as mature as the TERL collections but still remain contemporary, relevant, and enticing. The first boxed set, GO! Emerge, includes 48-page books written at true emergent levels, with full-color photographs on every page to support comprehension and engage struggling readers. Each leveled box gradually increases in level and word count, allowing students to progress in reading step by step.

SOCIAL EMOTIONAL STORIES™

RL: 1.6 to 2.4 | Grades: 4 to 8 | LEXILE: HL230L TO HL300L

About GO! SEL Social Emotional Stories™

Build students' social and emotional learning skills with these engaging 48-page fiction books. Each pair focuses on an important SEL topic from a relatable tween perspective. One book in each pair showcases a middle school student successfully applying the skill. The other book features a main character who struggles with the skill and has to deal with the fallout. When read together, the pairs provide students with a basis for discussion about the topic and how it can affect their day-to-day life.

Like the GO! SEL Literacy Library™ (see pages 28–31), six topics focus on self-awareness and managing one's own moods and attitudes, and six topics focus on social awareness and managing relationships with others. These books are original stories featuring tweens and are most appropriate for upper elementary and middle school classrooms.

Each pair features five emotion vocabulary terms for a total of 60 words. Vocabulary words are highlighted on the page where they first appear in the text and are listed with their definitions in the glossary at the back of each book. These words are also featured in the Emoti-Cards (sold separately).

White Lightning Books®

Tween Fiction Chapter Books

RL: 1.5 to 2.5 | Grades: 6 to 8 | LEXILE: HL160L TO HL250L

White Lightning Books® addresses a wide variety of themes and interests in a narrow range of reading levels, no higher than a 2.5. Students who struggle to read will often not recover from low reading achievement in elementary school if their particular interests are not addressed. Encouragement and finding the theme to “hook” them is key. These are not YA or elementary books—a fact tweens will appreciate.

Each book is approximately 100 pages with covers that will appeal to tween readers. The titles in the White Lightning series are designed in a similar style. Students will know what to expect when they pick up a book: a fast-paced story, mature and age-appropriate topics, 15 short chapters, and achievable reading success.

Summit Middle School

RENAISSANCE
Accelerated Reader®

Tween Fiction for Girls

RL: 3.5 | Grades: 5 to 8 | LEXILE: HL450L TO HL480L

Themes: Friendship, cliques, self-esteem, growing up

Middle school is the perfect storm of BFFs, frenemies, and mean girls. If you haven't been frozen out, dumped, or betrayed, then you are lucky. Handling drama is never fun, especially when you're alone. But some bonds of friendship are forever. The Summit Middle School series tackles the challenging years before high school.

The newly forged friendship between Carson Roberts, Emma Swanson, and Mai Pham seems unbreakable. The girls have found a kindred spirit in each other. Together, they turn the tables on the most beautiful bully in Texus City, Jessa McCain. There are no power struggles between these three besties.

Book 1: The Most Beautiful Bully

Handling drama by yourself is never fun. New seventh grade student Carson Roberts learns the hard way not to cross the school bully, beautiful Jessa McCain. And it's only her first day! She's also made two friends in quiet Emma Swanson and shy Mai Pham. But if there's one thing Carson learns, it's that baggage follows you.

Book 2: Silentious

Mai Pham cannot wait to return to Summit after the holiday break. She remembers how she used to dread it. School was a lonely place. But now Mai has two besties: Carson and Emma. Ever since Carson showed up, life has been different. Mai's new school ties don't please her dad. Friendships are a distraction. Can Mai prove him wrong?

Book 3: The Alternative

Popular Summit Middle School student Brent Bonham and his father never agree. Brent's dad runs an at-risk youth program, never thinking his own son would need help. But one day Brent does something illegal and is sent to the alternative campus, where beautiful bully Jessa McCain is also in attendance.

Book 4: All About My Selfie

Emma Swanson hasn't won any popularity contests at Summit Middle School. Not that she hasn't tried. The rejection hurts. But her friendships with Mai and Carson give her confidence. She's happy to help Mai with her budding music career, until she posts a popular selfie. Then it becomes all about Emma.

Topic-Based Books to Help Teens Master Social and Emotional Skills

SEL

TEEN LITERACY LIBRARY™

Nonfiction and Fiction with a Focus on Emotion Vocabulary

About SEL Teen Literacy Library™

With the increase in digital forms of communication and the increased pressures of today's world, schools are facing new challenges in supporting students and helping them learn social and emotional skills. The SEL Teen Literacy Library™ is a unique solution that uses nonfiction and fiction to help teens think about and discuss topics critical to successful social interactions and emotional health. Organized around 12 key SEL topics that cover both self-awareness and social awareness, this collection of Hi-Lo Books™ is the perfect addition to any middle or high school classroom or library.

Because recognizing and dealing with emotions is such an important aspect of social and emotional learning, emphasis is placed on 60 emotion words (5 for each topic). Each emotion is represented on a traditional vocabulary card with a photo on one side and the word and definition on the other as well as on an Emoti-Card featuring an illustration of the emotion with facial cues and gestures to help students better identify that emotion when interacting with others. Together with extensive instructional support in the form of lessons, activities, role-plays, and assessments, the books and cards in this collection provide the perfect solution to incorporating SEL instruction into content area classes.

Key Product Features:

- ▶ Accessible text with low readability and photographs on every page for comprehension support

[TERL]

About Teen Emergent Reader Libraries®

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. The three libraries are written at the emergent and beginning reader levels. Short, simple sentences along with highlighted “emphasis” words and phrases build confidence while full-color photos support comprehension.

The books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48- to 64-page books, these fiction and nonfiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today’s teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Genre: Action/Adventure

Overview of Books

INTRODUCTION TO THIS GENRE Write the word "action" on the board. Ask students what they think of when they see the word. After students share their thoughts, point out the five titles above "to go." Explain that to go is to do something, to act, generally involving movement. Ask students to think of other nouns that describe things that involve movement, action, or energy. Discuss all of these are exciting things to watch.

WHY THE WORD "ADVENTURE" ON THE BOARD Ask students what they think of when they see the word "adventure." After students share their thoughts, point out that an adventure involves doing something unusual or exciting.

Display one of the books from this genre. Explain that action/adventure fiction and nonfiction books explore exciting and often dangerous situations that people have to survive. Challenge them to use skills and strategies to read the book. Show the covers and titles of the four books in this set and have students guess what each one is about.

PARTNER TASK Assign partners and have students share what kind of adventures or dangerous situations they would want to read about. Encourage them to show which book in the set looks the most interesting to read.

Libraries for Developing Readers, The Next Step in Fluency

TEEN EARLY
FLUENCY LIBRARIES®

[TEFL]

Builds Confidence and Helps Students Become Independent Readers

About Teen Early Fluency Libraries®

The Teen Early Fluency Libraries® build on the reading base of the Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® (see pages 76–83). These books introduce readers to longer fiction and bridge the gap between emergent reading and early fluency. By the time older developing readers approach a second-grade reading level, they have a handle on the most basic literacy skills. They are ready to increase their fluency so that text flows and makes more sense. Fluency is closely tied to comprehension.

In these boxed sets, book lengths have been increased so there is more practice for readers who are gaining confidence and building their vocabulary. Instead of photos on every page, the photos appear every few pages in the fiction and every other spread in the nonfiction. Each boxed set increases by half a reading level so that students can continue to make progress step by step.

Key Product Features:

- ▶ Progress monitoring in the form of summative assessments for every book
- ▶ Three levels so developing readers build fluency and increase confidence
- ▶ Books progress through levels with fewer images per book culminating in fiction books with no images
- ▶ Extensive teaching support for every book
- ▶ Builds critical reading components: comprehension, vocabulary, and fluency
- ▶ Fiction and nonfiction genre sets for literature study

Designed Specifically For:

- ▶ Upper Middle School and High School Students Struggling to Read
- ▶ Students with Learning Differences and Special Needs
- ▶ Secondary English Language Learners and Newcomers

Nonfiction Hi-Lo Handbooks

RL: 3.5 | Grades: 6 to 12, Teen and YA | LEXILE: HL320L TO HL350L

Five unique handbooks comprise this American Government series. With the confusing political discourse in today's world, it's no wonder kids tune out. How can we tune them back in? The stale descriptions in standard American government textbooks do nothing to motivate learning. The readability is too high and the language too dry. How can we make it personal? Accessible? Interesting? Even humorous?

We've taken our Timeless Classics and Timeless Shakespeare and made them even more accessible. Ten of our most popular titles now offered at a first grade reading level. Words and phrases that may have stumped emergent readers have been eliminated. We recognize that students in the same classroom may not have equivalent reading skills, which is why the two levels appear virtually identical—on the outside. Inside it's a whole different look, with a larger font and extra white space, making these stories visually appealing with the aim to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and confidence. Not all titles shown. For a complete listing of titles, please visit our website at sdlback.com.
