TWEEN EMERGENT

A New Emergent Reader Series Designed for Tweens!

GO! EMERGE

Like the award-winning Teen Emergent Reader Libraries (see pages 28–35), the new Tween Emergent Reader Libraries will motivate struggling readers to pick up a book, start reading, and keep reading. But this new series features topics and genres particularly of interest to upper elementary and middle school students. Planned as a three-box set, with books written at emergent and beginning reader levels, this unique new collection contains the books you have been searching for: high-interest fiction and nonfiction selections in sets that include both literary genres and content-specific themes.

Because these books are designed for ages 10 to 14, the storylines presented are not as mature as the TERL collections but still remain contemporary, relevant, and enticing. The first boxed set, Emerge, includes 48-page books written at true emergent levels with full-color photographs on every page to support comprehension and engage struggling readers. Two additional sets, Engage and Excel, will feature slightly higher reading levels and word counts to allow students to progress in reading step by step.

Each set includes a Teacher's Guide, which provides detailed instructional support for every book and genre. Lesson plans, guided reading questions, comprehension-based activities, and book quizzes are all included.

The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for upper elementary and middle school teachers who want to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners. In addition, high school teachers who are looking for gentler topics than those featured in TERL will find these books a perfect choice for their struggling readers.

Content-Focused Genres for Teen English Language Learners

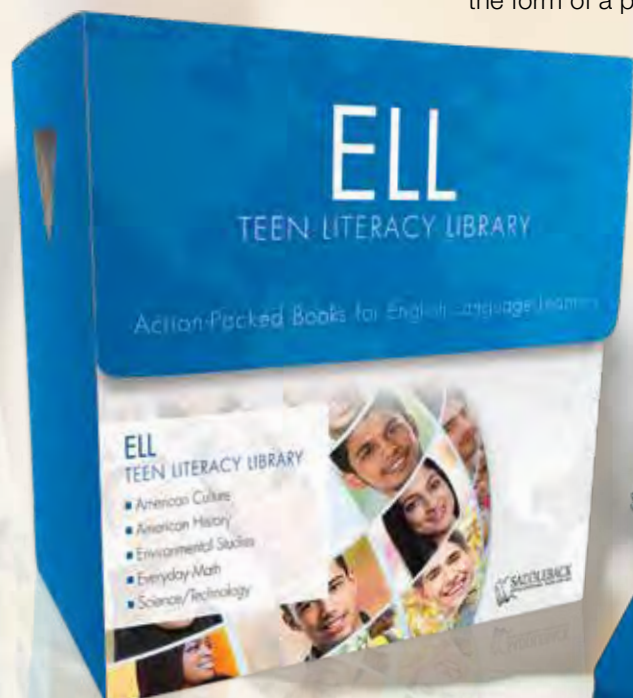

Five Genres with Fiction and Nonfiction

- ★ American Culture

- ★ Environmental Studies
- ★ Everyday Math
- ★ Science/Technology

The ELL Teen Literacy Library is a unique collection of fiction and nonfiction books aimed at middle school, high school, and adult English language learners, including newcomers. Many of these learners struggle with reading and a limited English vocabulary. This makes it difficult to do well in content-area classes where textbooks are often written above grade level. For this reason, the ELL Teen Literacy Library focuses on social studies, math, and science topics in books written at accessible levels. Each engaging fiction and nonfiction book features age-respectful storylines and full-color photographs on every page to support beginning readers at the secondary level.

Organized into five content-focused genres, this collection includes 20 unique titles. Each genre includes three fiction books and one nonfiction book.

Special emphasis is placed on vocabulary, with five key vocabulary words highlighted in each book. These words are featured in a glossary at the back of each book and on photo vocabulary cards included with the collection. Vocabulary is also emphasized in the Teacher's Guide, with vocabulary lessons and activities. In addition, the Teacher's Guide includes book lesson plans, guided reading questions, reproducible student activities, and assessments in the form of a program progress chart and book quizzes.

Award-Winning Books

A New Level of Sight Words-Based Texts for Teens

What Is TERL All About?

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries® have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. The first three libraries are written at the emergent and beginning reader levels. SOAR, the Teen Early Fluency Libraries™, is the newest addition to TERL. It introduces readers to longer fiction and bridges the gap between emergent reading and early fluency.

The books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48- to 64-page books, these fiction and nonfiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today's teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Designed Specifically For:

- Middle School and High School Students Struggling to Read
- Students with Learning Differences and Special Needs
- English Language Learners and Newcomers

WOW REVIEW! 🤩

"The TERL books have been a welcomed answer to my needs as a middle school special education teacher. I am thrilled with the TERL series and it has enabled me to be a more culturally relevant teacher by exciting my students' interest in reading. Instead of stories that don't connect with my students due to their low reading level, I can now explore real-life, engaging topics that connect to my students' lives." — Teacher, New Orleans

She's also made two friends in quiet Emma Swanson and shy Mai Pham. But if there's one thing Carson learns, it's that baggage follows you.

Book 2: Silentious

Mai Pham cannot wait to return to Summit after the holiday break. She remembers how she used to dread it. School was a lonely place. But now Mai has two besties: Carson and Emma. White Lightning Books®

Tween Fiction Chapter Books

RL: 1.5 to 2.5 | Grades: 6 to 8 | LEXILE: 160L TO 250L

White Lightning Books addresses a wide variety of themes and interests in a narrow range of reading levels, no higher than a 2.5. Students who struggle to read will often not recover from low reading achievement in elementary school if their particular interests are not addressed. Encouragement and finding the theme to “hook” them is key. These are not YA or elementary books—a fact younger teens will appreciate.

Each book is approximately 100 pages with covers that will appeal to young teen readers. The titles in the White Lightning series are designed in a similar style. Students will know what to expect when they pick up a book: a fast-paced story, mature and age-appropriate topics, short chapters, and achievable reading success.

Campus Confessions®

Hi-Lo College Fiction for Girls

RL: 3.5 | Grades: YA | LEXILE: 530L TO 570L

Themes: College life, self-reliance

Ronette Bradley hasn't exactly been an ideal student. Certainly she's no overachiever. But she's caught a lucky break. And she's determined not to screw up. Part romance—part confessional—part college adventures—each novel is approximately 28,000 words—160 pages.

Book 1: XO Ronette

Ronette Bradley. Good on standardized tests, a mess on her report cards. With high school over, she's stuck cleaning hotel rooms. Her high school sweetheart, Jayson Jones, is off to renowned Houseman University, a historically black college in the Dee Cee—two sisters for every brother. Ronette's ended up at CCC, the dismal Chicagoland Community College. Until one fateful telephone call changes everything ...

PB: 9781622507016 $9.95

Lexile: 530L

Book 3: Choices

Ronette wants to fly solo for a while. But Cornell London—a senior—is interested. Ronette's not sure she's ready for another relationship. Besides, Jayson still wants her back. But for now he's firmly in the "friend" column. And the poem Chyna rapped without permission? For better or worse, that performance puts them on the verge of a hip-hop deal. No lie. Now the Houseman Gammars are knocking ... so many choices, so little time.

PB: 9781622507030 $9.95

Lexile: 550L

Book 2: Frenemies

Ronette is in! She's a freshman at Houseman University. And she's psyched, especially because her fave poet in the world is a Houseman professor. Great, right? Oh-so-wrong. Her roommate, Chyna, turns out to be a—well, it's unprintable. Chyna thinks she's all that because she's the daughter of America's most famous talk show hostess. Even worse, Ronette finds Jayson ... let's just say college life is tough.

PB: 9781622507023 $9.95

Lexile: 570L

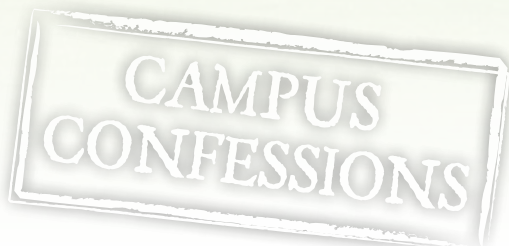

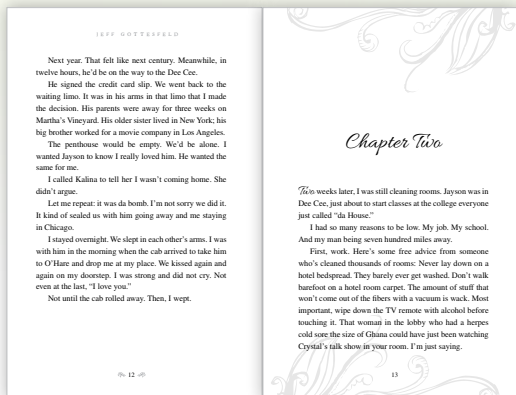

Book 4: Crush

The proverb, "Time heals all wounds," is true to some extent. But to Ronette, Jayson still hurts. Maybe she doesn't want time to heal this wound. It feels better fresh. Jayson thought she'd change her mind over break. But Ronette is firm. She's alone, finally. Except she's not. "Hey, Houseman girl." This brother has the warmest, friendliest face Ronette has ever seen. The rest, as they say, is history.

American Government

Nonfiction Hi-Lo Handbooks

RL: 3.5 | Grades: 6 to 12 | LEXILE: 320L TO 350L

Five unique handbooks comprise the new American Government series. With the confusing political discourse in today's world, it's no wonder kids tune out. How can we tune them back in? The stale descriptions in standard American government textbooks do nothing to motivate learning. The readability is too high. And the language too dry. How can we make it personal? Accessible? Interesting? Even humorous?

Differentiated Classics

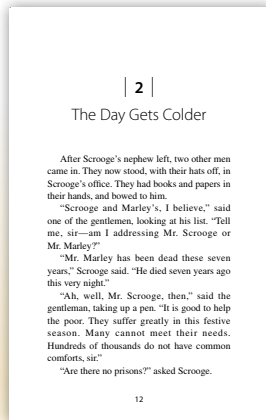

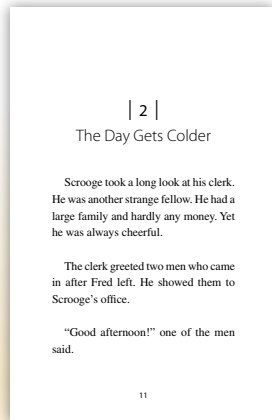

Adapted Classics at Two Low Levels

RL: 1.0 to 5.2 | Grades: 3 to 12, YA | LEXILE: 140L TO 250L

We've taken our Timeless Classics and Shakespeare and made them even more accessible. Words and phrases that may have stumped emergent readers have been eliminated. We recognize that students in the same classroom may not have equivalent reading skills, which is why the two levels appear virtually identical—on the outside. Inside it's a whole different look, with a larger font and extra white space, making these stories visually appealing with the aim to improve reading comprehension, fluency, and confidence. Classic fiction is 80 pages and classic Shakespeare is 110 pages.
