Chapter One: The Old Man's Home

The Dark Man is in the good part of the city.

He is at the home of the Old Man.

The Dark Man is weary and sits back in a chair.

“How long must I live like this?” the Dark Man asks.

The Old Man thinks before he speaks.

“The Shadow Masters will never stop,” he says.

Chapter Two: The Dark Man's Question

“What if they did find the Golden Cup?”
the Dark Man asks.

“Would it be so bad?”

“Close your eyes,” the Old Man says softly.

“Sleep.”

The Old Man's words have power, so the Dark Man sleeps.

As he sleeps, he is visited by dreams.

Chapter Three: The Dark Dreams

He sees the bad part of the city and it is in flames.
